BAPTISMS:

Aidan Matthew Corrigan

 * Today, we celebrate Gaudete Sunday. In the midst of our preparations * for Christmas, we are reminded to stop and spend time rejoicing for
 * what God has done for us.
 * It is interesting, however, to note that the writers of today's readings * are not simply rejoicing in the mystery of the incarnation. In the * reading from Isaiah, the prophet rejoices because the Lord has sent
 * Him to proclaim glad tidings to the poor, to heal the broken hearted, * to proclaim liberty to captives, and release to prisoners." Today's * Responsorial Psalm, the Magnificat, echoes these same sentiments. In
 * the Gospel reading, we find John the Baptist rejoicing in the mission
 * God has given Him. He tells those who have gathered around Him that * He is not the Messiah. He tells them, "I am the voice of the one crying
 * out in the desert, 'Prepare the way of the Lord.'" * What's more, in his letter to the Thessalonians, St. Paul reminds us as * the Christian Church to rejoice always. We are called to rejoice, * proclaim and, as stewards, to use the many things God has given us – our time, our talents, and our
 * treasure – to help others recognize the many good things God does for us.

The Christmas season can be hectic and busy leaving us stressed out and tired. Please mark your calendars to make time this Advent to spend with Him that He may be the center of our lives: Annunciation Catholic Church in Altamonte Springs, on Thursday, December 15th. Want to carpool? Plan for leaving BT at 5:30pm. Email Julie for more info: jmartin@blessedtrinity.org

CHRISTIANS OF THE HOLY LAND

Most of us are getting accustomed to the new language in the Roman Missal. In the Nicene Creed, we use the word Incarnate. This is a very Catholic word, meaning simply but not entirely, that Jesus was born. Incarnate, by the Holy Spirit; of the Virgin Mary. But, when and where? Well, two thousand and eleven years ago in Bethlehem, at the Church of Nativity. We are a pilgrim Church, with specific events that took place at certain locations and points in time. When St. Helena came to the Holy Land to build churches where Jesus ministered, it was easy to find these locations since the local Christians kept Vigil at these spots. We are blessed to have the entire ministry of Jesus documented and commemorated by parishes. We are equally blessed that until today, there remains a Christian Palestinian community bearing witness at these Churches, against all the odds. These Christians are waiting to greet you, just like they greeted St. Helena. I ask you in a very special way to remember in your prayers these First Christians, who remain in the Holy Land. The Middle East is in true turmoil, and the Christians are a mere 2% of the population. Please pray for Christianity to survive where it began. I wish you a very joyous journey through Advent and a very Merry Christmas.

Renew Your Spirit

Creation Therapy is a mechanism that allows man to find balance between the body, soul, and spirit. For you have formed my inward parts; You have covered me in my womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. (Psalm 139:13-14)

Reclaim the Body and Soul

Man is a physical, emotional and spiritual being with basic needs. We must understand our needs according to God’s design so we make healthy choices that promote physical and emotional well being.

Restore Balance in Life

Enjoy the fruits of the spirit. Bearing the fruit of the Spirit that God designed in each of us. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith. (Galatians 5:22)

Attention Students! Another opportunity for Service Hours Attention Everybody! Another opportunity to give of your Time & Talent!

We are looking for more people to be trained as video operators for the weekend and holy day Masses. Now that we no longer have hymnals in all the pews, it is vital that we have trained video operators to help our community fully participate in the Mass. And with the Christmas / New Year's holidays upon us, family schedules change, people travel out of town; so we need reliable backup personnel. We have new prayers to learn and new songs to sing! And students can get credit for service hours. A Win / Win Situation! If you are interested in being trained and scheduled, please contact Mr. Saalfeld (629-8092x202, RSaalfeld@blessedtrinity.org) this week!

WORD OF LIFE

With regard to the embryo in the womb, science itself highlights its autonomy capable of interaction with the mother, the coordination of biological processes, the continuity of development, the growing complexity of the organism. This is not an accumulation of biological material, but a new living being, dynamic and wonderfully ordered, a new unique human being. So was Jesus in Mary's womb, so it was for all of us in our mother's womb. ~Pope Benedict XVI, Homily at Celebration of First Vespers of the First Sunday of Advent, Nov. 27, 2010

Our Lady of Guadalupe

Today's feast reveals anew the great love God has for us and the lengths to which he will go to make that love known. A widower named Juan Diego was on his way to Mass one morning in 1531, when the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to him. Speaking in his native language and with the face and features of the peasant people of that place and time, Our Lady of Guadalupe came in a familiar guise. As in the incarnation, when God came as one like us, to dwell with us and share his life with us, so in her appearance to St. Juan Diego, Mary looks and sounds like one of his neighbors to reveal her solidarity with the faithful of the Americas. "True Marian devotion reaches its fullness and its most rightful expression," said Pope Paul VI, "when it is a path to the Lord and directs all its love toward him." May our celebration today and the prayers of Our Lady of Guadalupe deepen our love of God and help us to demonstrate that love by loving one another.
